Bates, Carolyn Smith
Death: July 18, 1995

□ Carolyn Smith Bates, 50, of Biloxi died Tuesday, July 18, 1995, in Biloxi.

Mrs. Bates was born in Poplarville and was a licensed practical nurse who worked for Dr. Billy Wansley for 18 years. She was a volunteer worker at Twelve Baskets and a member of Northside Assembly of God Church.

Survivors include her husband, Curtis M. Bates of Biloxi; two sons, Dennis Bates of Gulfport and Donald Edward Bates of Shannon; two brothers, Edward Smith of Itawamba County and James R. Smith of the Furrs Community; five sisters, Clara Primavera of Saucier, Clarcie Hester of Lumberton, Jessie L. Duke of Biloxi, Marion Cooley of Saucier and Paulette Brown of Biloxi; and three grandchildren.

A memorial service for relatives and friends will be held Saturday, July 29, at 10 a.m. at the D'Iberville Christian Assembly, located at the old TG&Y Building, Central Avenue, D'Iberville. Dress is casual.

The family prefers memorials to the American Heart Association, P.O. Box 6358, Gulfport, MS 39506.

Riemann Memorial Funeral Home, Beauvoir Road, Biloxi, is in charge of arrangements.